THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM · ESTATE PLANNING

Born of Water and Spirit

Welcoming your child into the family of God

Baptism is a sacred welcome into the Church and the start of your child's lifelong journey in faith. As you prepare for this holy sacrament, we invite you to consider an often-overlooked act of stewardship: creating your estate plan.

Why It Matters

Ensure Your Child Is Raised in the Faith

A will lets you name a guardian who will raise your child in the faith you're embracing today through Baptism.

Protect Your Family with Clarity and Peace

An estate plan provides clarity for your family's resources and reduces complications for those you love most.

Strengthen Your Congregation or ELCA Ministry for Generations

A planned gift to your congregation or an ELCA ministry ensures the community of faith your child is entering will continue to grow and serve for generations.

Create Your Will: Free in About 20 Minutes

FreeWill makes it simple to create a legal will, with a section for naming your child's guardian and a gift to support your congregation or ELCA ministry for generations.
