MARRIAGE PLANNING · ESTATE PLANNING

As You Begin Your Life Together

Becoming faithful stewards, as one

Marriage is a sacred covenant: two lives, two futures, made holy before God. As you prepare, your pastor invites you to consider one often-overlooked act of faithfulness: creating your estate plan together.

Why It Matters for Newlyweds

Protect and Provide for Each Other

Ensure your spouse is cared for with a legally valid will, beneficiary designations, and healthcare directives.

Plan for Your Family's Future

Designate guardians for your children and outline how shared resources will be managed, ensuring your values are passed on.

Leave a Lasting Legacy of Faith

A planned gift to your congregation or an ELCA ministry is the final act of stewardship that extends your generosity for generations.

Create Your Will: Free in About 20 Minutes

FreeWill makes it simple for couples to create a legally valid will, including a "mirror" option so your plans align perfectly. Consider supporting your congregation or an ELCA ministry in your estate plan too.
